Terms and Conditions of Sale

THIS list contains some of the plants in which we specialize; they grow to perfection in our soil and climate. Our connections with the entire nursery trade enable us to supply nursery products not mentioned in this list at reasonable prices, which we will gladly submit if desired.

Cash with order is requested unless satisfactory trade or bank references accompany the order. All bills are due net thirty days from date of invoice. Our prices are f.o.b. Huntington Station, Long Island Railroad—and are subject to change without notice. Packing will be charged at cost; no charges will be made for loading carload lots. We deliver by truck within a 50-mile radius of the Nursery; a nominal charge will be made for this service.

We will be glad to make special prices on carload lots.

Roses

We do not grow Roses. The growing of Roses is nowadays in the hands of specialists. We are, however, perfectly familiar with the best older and the newer varieties while the American and foreign horticultural papers keep us posted on the newest Roses of merit. We, therefore, can take excellent care of your orders for all classes of Roses, and will be glad to quote prices and suggest collections suitable for any particular climate and soil. We know the market; our prices are reasonable.

12 BAGATELLE NURSERY, Huntington Station, L. I.

MEMORANDUM

TO reach the Nursery, drive to the Dew Drop Inn at the intersection of the Jericho Turnpike and New York Avenue, Huntington, N. Y., about 35 miles from New York. Then follow the signs erected at the corners of intersecting roads. A short drive through a picturesque, rolling country will bring you to the Bagatelle Nursery.

From the Merrick Road, at Babylon turn into Deer Park Avenue, cross two railroad lines, proceed as far as arrow "Bagatelle Nursery" and follow arrows to nursery.

The shortest way from New York is to follow the Long Island Motor Parkway. A sign "Bagatelle Nursery," $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles past the Huntington Toll Gate, shows where to turn left.
